The Move on When Ready Program provides opportunities for high school juniors and seniors to enroll fulltime in postsecondary institutions to earn both high school and college credits.

"Move on When Ready Act"; to provide for definitions; to provide a program for eleventh and twelfth grade students to attend postsecondary colleges and schools for high school credit; to provide for notice to parents and students of the program; to provide requirements for course credit; to provide for state funding; to provide for testing; to provide for related matters; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes. (O.C.G.A. Sec. 20-2-161.3)

- ✓ The counseling services concerning participation in the Move On When Ready program have been provided (see attached checklist) to the participant and parents/guardians. The program's guidelines and the student responsibilities have been explained and discussed and they clearly understand what is expected to be able to enroll and continue participation in MOWR.
- ✓ Tuition, fees, and materials are the only costs that MOWR FTE funding covers. All other expenses will be the student and parents/guardians responsibility to pay.
- ✓ By signing this form, the student agrees for his/her grades to be sent to the high school at the completion of each semester.

On the following page, please list the college courses and the high school courses they will replace to satisfy the student's high school graduation requirements for the following marked semester(s). This form can be used for one school year (Fall/Spring).
